Bowling Green & North West Ohio

Bowling Green is an ideal destination for discovery as you explore its vibrant downtown and historic surroundings. Home grown from the "Great Black Swamp" and the prosperous Oil and Gas Boom of the 1930's, we are rich with history blended with spectacular sights and attractions.

Northwest Ohio is home to the Toledo Mud Hens, the Toledo Zoo, the world renown Toledo Museum of Art, the University of Toledo and historic Fort Meigs. A short drive from Cedar Point Amusement Park, Put-in-Bay and the Detroit Casinos.

Northwest Ohio has something for everyone.

International Women's Judo Alliance www.iwja.net

Vision:

To help develop, nurture and grow Women's Judo and encourage former players back to the mat to serve and help further growth of Women's Judo. To encourage Sensei's, Coaches, Male and Female to take an active part in developing programs to recruit and maintain female players.

Mission:

To assist member clubs, Sensei, and Judoka and our Judo community create programs and atmospheres to increase their numbers. To use the research compiled to date to help in this mission. Strategy: To ask for contributions from all involved in Judo. We need to be pro active and work to provide continuous development of Junior, Senior and Master Females.

Goals:

1. To utilize the data to date to discover and correct the reasons for the low numbers of females entering and staying with Judo.
2. To create Sensei seminars and workshops to assist in developing Women's Judo Programs in their Communities. To discuss Women's development issues and improve their Female Membership.
3. Sponsor Women's Event's such as Clinics and Competitions (Gokyu no Waza, Kata, Coaches and Referee clinics, All Women's Championship).
4. Provide some help with entrance fees, transportation and accommodation reimbursement for competition and clinics for female Judoka who are limited by their financial shortfalls.
5. To provide each member club the necessary financial resources to put their Women's Programs into effect.
6. Provide unbiased and obtainable Rank advancement. Provide advancement of female Referees , Coaches and Clinicians

In order to keep women's events such as the AWJC alive, beginning in 2011 all participants will need to have a paid membership in the IWJA. This membership will keep our event costs as low as possible and ensure we can provide numerous events for our female judokas.
